PLANNING + CONSULTING BEFORE WEDDING DAY

Contacting + communication with all vendors during the wedding planning process. This allows for the bride + brides family to direct the hard questions to the DK Planning team.

It also allows for the communication process to start early with Double Knot so that vendors are not contacting the bride/bride's mom for questions that DK can answer for them (florist, cake artist, caterer, photographer, etc.)

Help make design + planning decisions, or make recommendations for bride + bride's family.

This allows the bride to really enjoy the wedding process by allowing the DK planning team to help with the tough decision making for the big day.

Communicating with Bridal Party + Immediate family as needed during the wedding planning process. This allows the bride to have some assistance with communicating the wedding plans before the wedding day.

Contacting all vendors, bridal party, house party (cake cutters, greeters), ushers, and immediate family two weeks before the wedding day to answer any questions and communicate the timeline.

The DK planning team will send the timeline to above list two weeks before.

Continual communication with the DK wedding team during the entire wedding planning process, via text, phone call, social media, Pinterest and emails.

Scheduled monthly consultations with the DK Planning team during the wedding planning process.

These meetings are used to make sure you are on task, know what you are doing, and feel comfortable during every stage of the wedding planning process.

Attend vendor meetings with bride as needed (or in place of the bride if needed)

A month by month To Do List. This list keeps the bride on track each month of her engagement.

This also makes sure that nothing is missed, and details are taken care of in advance.

During the scheduled consultations, the DK planning team will go over the to do list and make sure you feel confident executing your tasks.

Detailed timeline for your big day. This timeline not only includes details from your photographer, but it also contains details of your wedding day from start to finish.

This timeline starts when the bridal party arrives to their "getting ready" location and ends when the bride and groom exit their reception.

It also includes everything in between ie. Hair & make up schedule, bridal brunch, cake delivery, florist arrival, times bridal party need to be ready (including location), photography timeline from photographer, ceremony start time + details, and reception start time + details (cake cuttings, first dances, bouquet toss, toasts, etc) etc.

Processional Order and details. The DK planning team will create a processional order with your help.

Who is escorting family down the aisle?

Who will be walking down the aisle?

Will groomsmen enter on the side or up the middle?

What songs should we play? Will there be a unity candle, sand, or song?

PLANNING + COORDINATING THE NIGHT BEFORE (REHEARSAL) + DAY OF WEDDING
